

A modern interior hallway with a checkered tile floor. On the left, a staircase with a glass railing and a metal handrail leads up. The ceiling is white with recessed circular lights. The walls are a light beige color. In the background, a dark door is visible at the end of the hallway. The overall design is clean and contemporary.

